

A participatory path toward reintegration of children in conflict with the law

European Final Conference - 26 November 2018 - Brussels

PROGRAMME

8h30 - 9h00

Registration

Chairperson: Karen Van Laethem, President of the Belgian National Commission for children's rights

9h00 - 9h30

Detained children in conflict with the law: European perspectives

Christian Bäumlér, European Economic and Social Committee

Regina Jensdóttir, Head of the Children's Rights Division - Council of Europe

9h30 - 9h45

Lessons learned from the CRBB 2.0 project

Julien Attuyl-Kayser & Sarah Grandfils, children's rights experts - DCI-Belgium

9h45 - 11h15

Capacity building of professionals working in closed institutions for children: better knowing children's rights to better implement them

Facilitation: Laura Janes, legal director, & Lorraine Atkinson, senior policy officer - Howard League

- Self-assessment tools for professionals, DCI-Belgium

- Children's rights awareness raising of professionals, DCI-Italy & Ministry of Justice - Department of Juvenile and Community Justice

- Youthlab: youth deprived of liberty training justice professionals, Young in Prison

Discussion

11h15 - 11h45

COFFEE BREAK

11h45 - 13h15

Children's rights to participation and to information: making these rights effective

Facilitation: Katarzyna Wiśniewska, lawyer, Helsinki Foundation for Human Rights

- Hip-hop workshops, DCI-Italy & Ministry of Justice - Department of Juvenile and Community Justice

- Rap music workshops - right to information, DCI-Belgium

- Listening to young people in detention: an Irish perspective, Ombudsman for Children's Office in Ireland

Discussion

13h15 - 14h45

LUNCH

+ screening of the documentary :

"Voices from the inside - rap, perspectives and rights of young people deprived of liberty"

14h45 - 16h15

Ensuring a successful reintegration of detained children in conflict with the law

Facilitation: Julien Attuyl-Kayser & Sarah Grandfils, children's rights experts - DCI-Belgium

- Children's views on reintegration, Howard League - United Kingdom

- Right to reintegration, Helsinki Foundation for Human Rights - Poland

Discussion

16h15 - 17h00

What better can be done to improve the reintegration of detained children in conflict with the law?

George Moschos, former Ombudsman for Children - Greece

Defence for Children
DCI-BELGIUM

The worldwide movement for children's rights

CHILDREN'S RIGHTS BEHIND BARS